THE BIRDMAN LEGEND IS ALIVE AGAIN

Now the new Birdman wines from Viña Anakena are being distributed in Easter Island, and participated in the very important annual festival that was held in January, the Tapati.

Every Spring the Easter Island sea bird (Manutara) lays its precious egg in coastal cliffs. The Birdman legend tells the story of how the men from Rapa Nui (Easter Island) would show their worth by swimming the long distance to the islet of Motu Nui in search of an egg. The first islander to bring it back safely was given the title of 'Tangata Manu', the Birdman.
